

The Friends of Australian Rock Art invite you to the second annual Burrup convergence

Burrup (Murujuga) Heritage Tour

A four day guided tour of the Burrup Peninsula Rock Art Region, the world's oldest and largest rock art landscape.

Dampier Archipelago, Karratha 1500k north of Perth
Sunday 3rd August to Sunday 10th August

Experience the majestic wonders of the Burrup - over 500,000 rock art engravings dating back 30,000 years. Gain an understanding of the importance of preserving this world-renowned archaeological site. A rare opportunity to meet with expert Archaeologists and Aboriginal custodians of the Burrup rock art.

The cost of $1250.00 includes return travel by air-conditioned coach, all meals (except one dinner), camping, tours, T-shirt, informative guiding plus an orientation evening. A deposit of $100 is required to confirm your booking. Send a cheque or postal order, made out to Friends of Australian Rock Art to 10 Delwood Place, Willetton, Western Australia 6155.

Further information will be forwarded on receipt of your deposit.

Final payment is required by 23rd June.

For more information contact Rosita Valladares at rositav@virginbroadband.com.au or phone 0411 669 128 or (08)9332 2815.

People with their own transport are welcome to join the tour but prior booking is essential, both to ensure you of a place and assist us with our planning. The cost is $75 and needs to be paid with your booking before the 23rd June. Numbers are limited. Camping facilities may be available at Harding River Caravan Park, near Roeburne. Early booking is advised. Phone (08) 9182 1063 or email hardingrivercaravanpark@bigpond.com